REFERENDUM BEING HELD IN ALGERIA

By ANDREW BOROWIEC

ALGIERS (AP)—Violence shattered an atmosphere already heavy with fear as voters in scattered parts of Algeria cast ballots today on Premier de Gaulle's proposed new constitution.

French officials reported at least six military clashes with rebels as voting began. Several rebel terrorist attacks occurred in Algerian cities.

At Setif, rebels sprayed rifle fire into a bar, killing a woman and injuring six other persons. Nearby, a French soldier was wounded by a rebel grenade. A Moslem was assassinated. Similar incidents were reported at Tlemcen and Peregau.

The voters were given a yes-no choice on a document that makes no provision for Algeria itself. De Gaulle has withheld any indication what the future will be for Algeria under his Fifth Republic which the constitution will establish.

Moslems, who make up 90 per cent of Algeria's population, went to the polls in fear of the two forces which have been fighting over this North African territory for four years.

By participating in the three-day referendum, they risk the wrath of nationalist rebels seeking independence for Algeria. The rebels have demanded a boycott of the referendum.

But by exercising their legal right of abstention, Moslems run the more immediate risk of repression by French troops.

Polio Cases Set New High Total During the Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—State health department reported 434 polio cases last week, 220 of them paralytic. Both totals were the highest for any week this year.

Corrected figures for the preceding week, ended Sept. 13, were listed today by the Public Health Service as 394 cases, with 191 paralytic.

The 434 cases last week compared with 212 in the corresponding 1957 week. The 220 paralytic cases compared with 82.

For the year through Sept. 20 there have been 3,367 cases, compared with 4,614 last year. The paralytic cases totaled 1,536 compared with 1,472.

About half the cases reported last week and about 40 per cent of the paralytic cases were listed by east north-central states—212 cases, with 80 paralytic.

Michigan, where there is an epidemic in one part of Detroit, again led the nation, with 129 cases reported, including 42 paralytic. However, 95 of the Michigan cases began prior to Sept. 12.

Graphic Eyewitness Account Of Sending Aid to Island

By FORREST EDWARDS

QUEMOY (AP)—Nationalist landing ships standing at least four miles off the coast sent waves of amphibious craft with tons of supplies to Quemoy beaches today.

The craft streamed out of the choppy surf in twos and threes and rolled to a protected area in a successful followup to an overnight airdrop mission by Nationalist transport planes.

The tonnage involved was not announced.

But from an open trench on a hilltop above Liaolo Beach I saw 23 craft come in under Communist fire. I saw none hit by Red shells, though there were three near misses.

"We know how to get supplies in now and we are determined to do so," a Nationalist officer said. "We must take some risks."

The first loaded craft from the ships labored onto a beach at 11:01 a. m., the last at 11:40.

The Communists, who had been loosing bursts of three to five shells at intervals at outgoing and incoming craft, opened up heavily on the beach itself 25 minutes after the last of the craft reached shore. Obviously hoping to catch work parties in the open, they fired more than 100 shells in two or three minutes.

Two or three LSTs (Landing Ship, Tanks), two Nationalist patrol craft, and what seemed to be a destroyer could be seen on the horizon.

(Newsman who flew over the convoy sighted two or three destroyers of the U.S. 7th Fleet far offshore.)

The night parachute mission also was carried out under Communist fire. Nationalist planes dropped more than 400 cases of supplies to Quemoy in the first two hours.

Arkansas Grid Rally Is Turned Into Melee

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP)—About 150 students turned a high school football rally into a melee Thursday night and attacked cars driven by Negroes and whites.

No injuries were reported although one white woman said she was slapped by one of the youths.

The demonstration erupted at Broad and State Line avenues, on the border of Texas and Arkansas. It involved students of Texarkana, Ark., High School and Texarkana, Tex., High.

The trouble began on the Arkansas side. Police dispersed the youths. The crowd then retreated across the street to Texas and yelled curses at the Arkansas officers.

Officers reported two students were arrested and charged with malicious mischief.

Weather Bureau Orders Hurricane Warnings

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The Weather Bureau ordered up hurricane warnings today from Cape Fear, North Carolina, to Savannah, Georgia.

The bureau said hurricane Helene was centered 200 miles south-east of Charleston, S.C., at 11 a. m., EST.

It was still moving northwestward at 14 miles an hour.

"Safety precautions should be started immediately and completed by sunset," the emergency warning from the bureau said.

"Storm tides and high seas will flood coastal lands from Beaufort to Wilmington, N.C., and particularly from Charleston to Cape Fear, to heights of 4 to 6 feet above levels reached by normal tides for this date.

"In some local areas tides may be even higher."

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—An Air Force jet plane fired an air-to-ground rocket test vehicle into the Atlantic Thursday in a mission cloaked with secrecy.

The type of missile fired was not identified. Reports circulating here indicated the Air Force has been testing its Hound Dog weapon off the cape.

An Air Force spokesman gave no details.

Faubus Says Rulings Favor Segregation

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus says a federal judge's refusal to block a private school plan brightened chances for keeping segregation here.

He plans a televised speech tonight dealing with Saturday's referendum on the school dispute.

The referendum will decide whether Little Rock's four closed high schools reopen on an integrated basis.

Faubus shut the schools to avoid compliance with court-ordered integration. He wants the schools to operate as private and segregated institutions.

U.S. Dist. Judge John E. Miller, sitting at Fort Smith, Ark., Thursday declined to handle the private school issue.

He dismissed petitions of the Little Rock School Board and the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.

The School Board had asked if it could legally lease its schools to a private corporation. The NAACP petitioned for an injunction to prevent any such leasing.

Judge Miller said he lacked jurisdiction to rule on the questions. He said it was a matter for a three-judge court.

Frat Uses Poison Ivy for Decorations

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Cash was short. The Phi Kappa Tau fraternity decorations committee decided to use ivy instead of palms to decorate for a South Seas dance.

The six-man committee combed the University of Louisville campus. They found their ivy. It looked lovely twined into garlands for the dance. The affair Saturday night was a roaring success.

Today the whole decoration committee was wearing calamine lotion.

They'd collected armloads of poison ivy.

Strike Deadline For G. M. Is But Four Days Away

By CHARLES C. CAIN

DETROIT (AP)—The United Auto Workers sternly warned its General Motors members today to avoid picket line incidents while it headed into an intensive week-end bargaining session with a strike deadline only four days away.

Two minor outbreaks were reported at GM plants in the Detroit area Thursday. Picket lines ringed 12 GM plants across the nation, idling 40,000 workers.

UAW President Walter Reuther took personal command of the union negotiating team today.

GM, biggest of the auto makers and with 250,000 UAW members among its 325,000-man work force, gave no indication it planned to sweeten its offer of a three-year contract with concessions almost identical to those on which Ford and the UAW settled Sept. 17.

Search for Letter Delays Trial of Air Force Men

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP)—A search for a letter under discussion in the trial of three men charged with conspiracy to defraud the Federal Government has interrupted testimony in U. S. District Court.

Jack L. Bourquin, a production specialist with the U. S. Air Force at Dayton, Ohio, mentioned the letter in his testimony Thursday but the alleged letter had not been located when court closed for the day.

Defendants in the trial, which started Monday, are Robert F. McNett, president of Royal Electric Co., Dayton, Ohio; Col. Ralph E. Brownfield, Kansas City, and Col. Charles F. Burley, Dayton, Ohio.

The two officers held high posts at Oimstead Air Force Base near Harrisburg at the time of the alleged conspiracy in the sale of materials to the government.

Bourquin testified that he had made a survey of the royal plant to determine if it could produce suitable electronic parts for aircraft. He told the court that he felt the company could produce the parts if certain copper testing equipment was made available.

Armco Steel Preparing To Open Six Furnaces

BUTLER, Pa. (AP)—Armco Steel Corp. reported today that all of its six open hearth furnaces will be operating next week for the first time since 1956.

During the past week 150 employees have been called back to work, bringing to 300 the number of hurloughed workers recalled recently.

An increase in steel orders means that about 3,400 of the plants 3,700 employees will be working next week.

MEXICAN FLOODS

MEXICO CITY (AP)—The death toll from floods in the west coast state of Sinaloa climbed today to 18 as receding waters exposed more bodies.

At least 48 persons are now known to have lost their lives in two weeks of flooding throughout central and north Mexico from the worst rains in 51 years.

Dulles Says There Will Be No Retreat

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles conferred with top Western diplomats today after serving notice that the United States will "make no retreat in the face of force" on Formosa.

In a speech before the Far East-American Council of Commerce and Industry in New York Thursday night, Dulles charged that Red China—aided by Soviet arms, supplies, and moral support—is "threatening war against us in the Formosa area."

"The United States is not prepared to retreat in the face of armed force," he declared. "But," he added, "our position is otherwise flexible."

Dulles said the United States welcomed Peking's willingness to resume the U. S.-Red Chinese talks and was prepared, "in accord with our United Nations Charter obligation, to settle the dispute by peaceful means."

"We believe that the Soviet Union, if it wanted to see a peaceful solution, could make that possible," he said.

The secretary spoke amid indications that the gloom into which the Formosa crisis had plunged Washington was lifting slightly.

Spirits were bolstered by a Pentagon estimate that Nationalist China is strong enough to hurl back any Red Chinese invasion attempt against Quemoy without U. S. armed help.

There was a feeling in U. N. circles that the Reds were easing their pressure on Formosa—perhaps in the face of a solid Western front.

Both Britain and France joined in supporting American efforts to get a cease-fire in the crisis.

The Warsaw talks continued to drag on despite reports of deadlock.

U. S. Ambassador Jacob Beam told newsmen in the Polish capital he would meet again next Tuesday with the (Turn to Page Ten)

Jobless Claim Payments Drop to New Low Level

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Bureau of Employment Security reported new claims for unemployment compensation benefits last week dropped to 30,174, the lowest since last October.

The report Thursday for the week ended Sept. 19 also showed 237,267 continuing claims, a decrease of 10,960 from the previous week.

At the same time the bureau reported claims for additional benefits offered by the federal government to persons who have exhausted regular benefits totaled 79,610, an increase of 2,045 over the preceding week.

State Purchases Of TV Sets Will Be Investigated

HARRISBURG (AP)—Auditor Gen. Charles C. Smith says the Board of Public Grounds and Buildings, on which he serves, will completely investigate state purchases of 293 television sets.

Smith said Thursday that he had rejected the proposed purchase of the sets from a Philadelphia agency because of "differences and improprieties" in the purchase awards.

At the same time, Harry Shapiro, secretary of Public Welfare and former secretary of the old Welfare Department, said he also disapproved the purchase of the sets because he feels the price is too high.

He said the matter is in the process of further negotiations.

The television sets originally were obtained by the Department of Welfare, on a bailment lease agreement, in 1957 and distributed among 16 mental institutions.

Smith later disapproved the arrangement, claiming the sets should have been purchased by competitive bidding.

The auditor general rejected the request to buy them outright on the same grounds, claiming at the same time that the purchase requisitions had been backdated to Feb. 14, 1957.

ANNOUNCEMENT AWAITED ON WHETHER SATELLITE REACHED ORBIT HEIGHT

By JACK KING

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A weather probing Vanguard satellite was blasted into space today and preliminary instrumentation showed the rocket's three engines performing normally.

That meant the huge rocket blazed some 300 miles high in space, probably reaching a speed of 18,000 miles per hour.

An official announcement said, however, that it was not yet known whether orbital height was obtained. This should be determined within about 2 1/2 hours.

The first word on whether the United States had placed a fourth satellite in orbit was expected to come from the National Academy of Science in Washington in two hours.

The 72-foot, bullet-shaped rocket housed a 20-inch, 21 1/2-pound satellite which, if orbited successfully, could spot large storm masses such as hurricanes and typhoons as they build up around the earth.

This was the seventh try at shooting a composite three-stage Vanguard, with only one success chalked up to date.

It was also the first time a Vanguard had been fired successfully in two months. During the interim the slender missile was checked out from top to bottom and a few minor adjustments made in the first two stages.

An attempted launching of this same rocket was scrubbed last week when an electrical break-down caused automatic engine cutoff a split second before liftoff. The mighty Vanguard engine ignited then with a flash but shut down just as quickly when the trouble developed.

The main mission of the "seeing eye" moon was to measure the movement and disposition of cloud cover around the world to aid meteorological studies. Two light-sensitive photoelectric cells were carried in the satellite to do the job.

The 22,600 pound rocket climbed slowly aloft at 10:38 a. m., EST.

It began to accelerate rapidly as it rose steadily into the cloud-filled Florida skies.

The sleek missile was bucking a brisk westerly wind as it roared skyward.

After about 10 seconds the olive-drab and white missile ended its vertical flight and curved toward the Southeast.

It was a tiny white dot in the sky as it darted in and out of the clouds.

After about 2 1/2 minutes burnout was expected from the first stage engine and the second stage was due to ignite at an altitude of about 28 miles.

The lift-off appeared perfect to news observers watching from an observation tower about a mile and a half from the launching site.

If all went well, the 50-pound spent third stage rocket would trail the satellite into an elliptical orbit after attaining a velocity of 18,000 miles an hour. Thus, a total of 71 1/2 pounds would be in orbit.

Nationalists Are Landing More Arms

By JAMES CARY

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Fresh supplies poured to Quemoy's defenders by air and sea amid heavy Communist artillery fire today.

The buildup came as the Chinese Nationalists announced another aerial victory that boosted their claimed kills to 29—without a Nationalist loss—since the Aug. 23 flareup of the offshore war.

Pilots reported one MIG17 shot down and another possibly damaged in a battle late Thursday off Swatow between four of their American-built Sabre Jets and 16 of Red China's Soviet-supplied fighters.

The first Nationalist ship convoy to cross Formosa Strait since Monday sailed through a Red barrage and sent amphibious vehicles racing to Quemoy's beaches with cargo to replenish garrison stocks. Four correspondents witnessed the operation on a flight back to Taipei.

Transport planes parachuted high-priority supplies to the island overnight through skies peppered by bursting shells. It was the third such operation in three nights.

Though the supplies are flowing again, the big questions are how much is getting through and how long the blockade puncturing can be kept up.

These are vital questions because American policy of containing the Formosa Strait war seems now to hinge on denying the Reds Warships of the U. S. 7th Fleet.

Immediate Trials Sought In Police Bribe Cases

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The City of Pittsburgh plans to push for immediate trials for the remaining 14 defendants charged with bribing or attempting to bribe police officers.

Safety Director Louis Rosenberg made the announcement Thursday. U. S. Atty. Hubert Teitelbaum said earlier he did not intend to subpoena the defendants for a federal probe into alleged bribery of police officials until the city disposed of them.

Two of the 17 original defendants have been acquitted, another was convicted.

Appeals Court Sets Date To Hear Arguments on Dam

WASHINGTON (AP)—Arguments will be heard Oct. 31 in the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals here on a petition by the Seneca Indian Nation to block construction of the proposed flood control dam at Kinzua, Pa.

The Indians took their fight to the appeals court after a lower court refused to halt work on the $11-million dollar dam on the upper Allegheny River.

Atty. Edward E. O'Neill, counsel for the Senecas, has vowed to carry the case to the Supreme Court, if necessary.

The Senecas claim a large portion of their reservation in lower New York State would be flooded by the reservoir created by the dam.

In the present action, the Senecas are not disputing the right of the government to take the land involved by eminent domain. They say, however, they want every feasible flood control alternative investigated before the Kinzua Dam is begun.

Jaycees Will Be Represented at Multi-State Meet

Three members of the local Junior Chamber of Commerce chapter will attend the fifth annual Jaycee Middle Atlantic Institute Conference being held in Allentown this weekend.

Dick Cook, Administrative Vice-President of the Pennsylvania Jaycees, along with Bill Clinger, local chapter president and John Evans, a member of the Warren Jaycees Board of Directors, will represent Warren at the regional meeting.

The Middle Atlantic Institute is a multi-state Jaycee meeting held once yearly at a host city of one of the member states. This is the first time that the conference will have been held in Pennsylvania.

The representatives attend a series of forum discussions and lectures pertaining to problems common to Jaycee chapters throughout the country. Much useful advice on the internal organization of chapters along with proven suggestions on how to conduct civic improvement projects will be disseminated.

The emphasis at this meeting, as at all Jaycee meetings, will be on leadership training and specifically how best to develop young men for the responsibilities of civic and business leadership. The Honorable Cecil Underwood, Governor of West Virginia, will be the keynote speaker at the Conference.

Plans Announced For Ike To Make Stumping Trips

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower is stepping into the congressional election campaign with a three-day stumping expedition next month to Los Angeles, San Francisco and Chicago. The plans were announced today by White House press secretary James C. Hagerty. He was flanked by Meade Alcorn, chairman of the Republican National Committee, who had just conferred for an hour with Eisenhower.

This speaking trip—and Hagerty made it clear there will be others—will take Eisenhower to Los Angeles on Oct. 20, and to San Francisco the following day. On Oct. 22, Eisenhower will speak in Chicago.

Details as to speaking hours and places are not yet final, but in all three instances, the addresses will be carried by regional television networks.

Neither Hagerty nor Alcorn would definitely commit Eisenhower at this point to any major political appearance in the East. They said the full extent of Eisenhower's role in the campaign still is being worked out.

The magnet drawing the President to California is of course the tough battle in which the GOP is engaged there. Senate Republican Leader Knowland is trying for the governorship, and Gov. Goodwin Knight is attempting to take over the Senate seat Knowland is giving up.

Hagerty was not dismissing the possibility of a nationwide telecast or two by Eisenhower before the Nov. 4 election. But, again, he said plans are incomplete.

Alcorn said he obtained the President's enthusiastic approval for a plan to set up an organization of senior Republicans—persons over 65—to take on a more active role in politics.

By 1960, the GOP chairman said, the Republicans plan to have such clubs in every state, city and town.

The drive to enlist oldsters, Alcorn said, is a result of an unusual bid from many persons over 65 to be allowed to pitch into campaign activity.

Student Writes of Her Experiences in Russia

Third in a Series
By BEVERLY DEEPE
Written for The Associated Press

They call it a farm. But it isn't. It is really a gigantic factory in which workers are continually hounded to meet American production standards.

More than 18,000 people work on a huge, 32,000-acre factory-farm east of Stalingrad that I visited as a member of the U.S.-U.S.S.R. student exchange program.

Their big objective, the director said, is to have each Russian produce more than the average individual American farmer.

"We have to look at the United States in this field and we have to take them on," he said. "By means of peaceful competition, we want to achieve the level of American agricultural production and then overtake this level."

"But," I asked, "what will you do with the surplus after overtaking the U.S. farmer?"

The director laughed. "Ask the minister of agriculture," he replied.

Workers live in five haphazard little communities on the farm, mostly in four-room homes of wood or peeling stucco owned by the government. About 10 per cent live in state-owned apartment houses.

Kaskalen is one of the communities—a listless town where a white stucco Palace of Culture for night movies and dances is still under construction. There are no churches.

An Aqua Volga, resembling a 1935 Ford, rolled down the asphalt main street. But just outside the village, small donkey carts carried dusty men over dusty roads. Women with smiling Oriental faces brought quart tins to the shops for their daily supply of milk.

The state owns the farm and pays the workers' wages. The farm meets the production quotas set by the state and sells any surplus to the state.

Each farmer has three quarters of an acre which the state lets him cultivate as he pleases. Each farmer also has permission to raise a few cattle.

Otherwise, they are the human tools who operate the state's tractors, combines and other machinery for the benefit of the state.

There are 3,500 unskilled workers who cultivate the corn, harvest the grain, hoe the 2,000 acres of garden crops and plant the sugar beets on this one farm. They also tend the dairy cows, goats, horses, pigs—and 300 camels.

The farm has more than 6,000 children who attend various schools and the agricultural institute.

Before leaving, the director took us to the four-room, crumbling stucco home of a farm mechanic—described as "one of the professional people"—and his wife and three daughters.

We entered a reception room where a rubber plant filled about a fourth of the space. There was also a settee covered with white muslin, a chiffonier, a short-wave radio and a vase of artificial flowers.

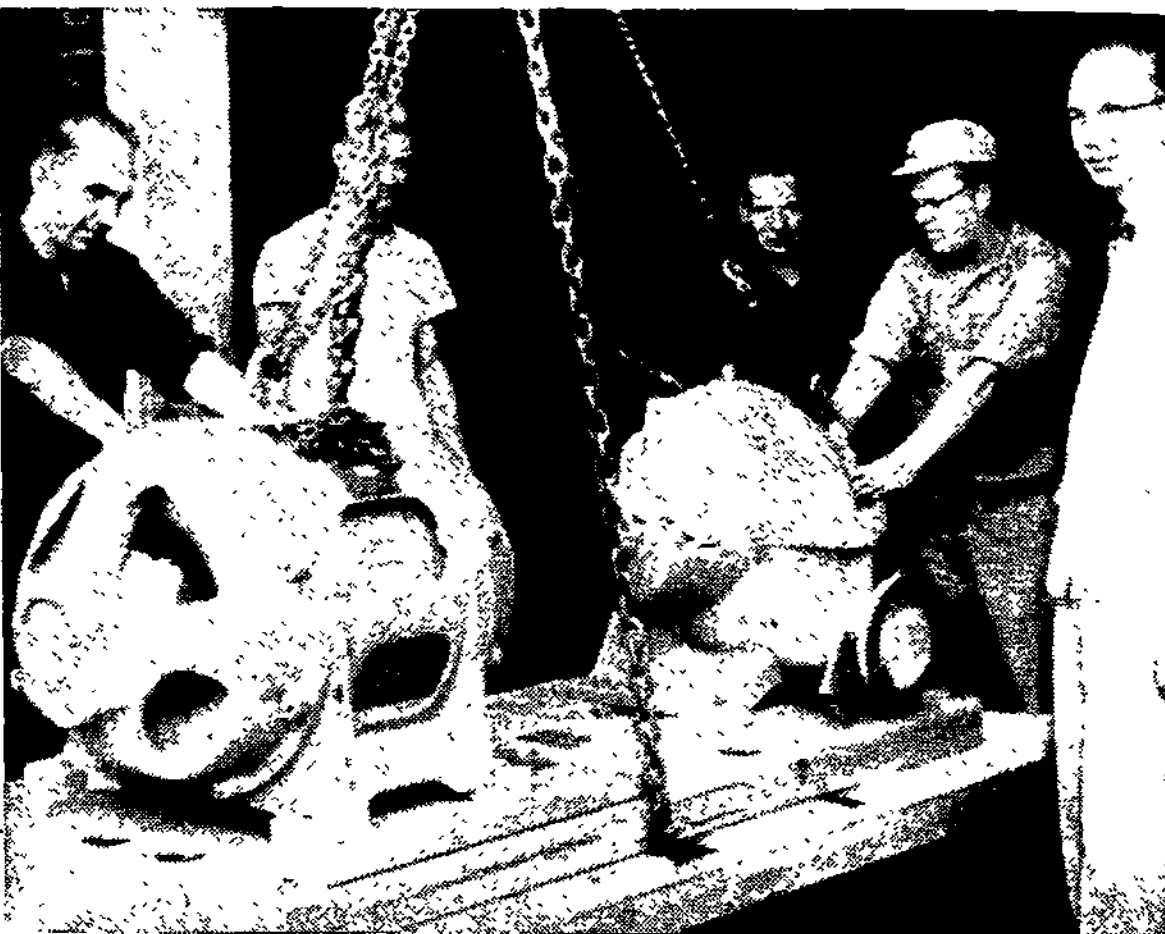

A rubber doll sat on the cardboard bed in the corner. The walls were decorated by a clock, a barometer and a painting of a watermelon done by the housewife.

The kitchen was about 9 by 15 feet. An aluminum pot was boiling on the single-burner, electric hotplate. There was a white-washed iron stove about four feet high and an enamel sink two feet wide with a single cold water tap.

There was also a low cupboard with peeling, wine-colored paint and a worn wine oilcloth. There were no windows.

The parents slept in a single-sized iron bed covered with a lace bedspread and needlepoint pillows. A foot-operated, treadle-type sewing machine stood near the

Water Company Improving Its Service

Mind Reader Is Freed Following Courtroom Drama

By RICHARD O'REGAN

BERLIN (AP) — Six spectators in a courtroom in suburban Berlin raised their hands. Yes, they told the judge, they were willing to have their minds read by the man on trial.

They wrote six questions and handed them to the bench. The judge turned to Gerhard Belgardt, 39, otherwise known as "Hansusen II, Germany's No. 1 mind reader."

The charge against Belgardt was: He had swindled funds in private seances by professing to give news of missing relatives.

The judge: "What is on the first piece of paper?"

Belgardt: "The lady is asking about her sister. She is an inch taller, blonde, considerably younger, and works in a public building."

The questioner: "That's right. My sister works as a medical assistant."

The judge: "What is on the next paper?"

Belgardt: "The man has asked about his son. He will come along well in school."

The man: "Correct."

The judge: "The next questioner is a city detective. What has he written?"

Belgardt, hesitating: "He asks about his mother or his grandmother. I have no contact. Either the question is phony or she is dead. The man has suffered long—a concentration camp? Is that correct?"

The detective: "Correct. I asked about my grandmother. She is dead. I was in a concentration camp."

Three further questions were asked and Belgardt got the answers relatively right.

The judge: "I see no evidence that Belgardt has deliberately cheated people. The experiments in court, particularly that with the detective, indicate that the accused has a certain validity to his claims as a mind reader. Case dismissed."

Hansusen II, embracing his wife: "I had foreseen that I would be freed."

Next: Going to Church.

Warren Water Co. Thursday began the second phase of a major improvement program designed for continuing better service to its patrons.

That morning two huge new electric pumps were unloaded, signaling an end to the old Worthington "puffers" which have chugged at the Glade Pumping Station since it was built in 1910.

Dan Troxell, Warren Water Company manager, said complete installation of five new pumps would probably not be completed for six months. Project will cost in the neighborhood of $100,000.

When the new pumps are in operation it will bring to an end the old boiler system now operating at the pumping station. WWC will no longer need to consume its 500 tons of coal a day to keep up the water pressure. The largest old Worthington pump pushed out into the system each stroke 72 gallons and was capable of 3,000,000 gallons a day.

The electric pumps unloaded Thursday will be capable of 850 and 1500 gallons per minute.

Manager Troxell said that extensive relocation of pipes at the pumping station would be necessary before the new ones go into operation. Also, with no further use for the large boilers, it is probable that extensive building alterations will be made to the brick structure.

In all, five new pumps will be utilized. The two brought in today, plus one more, will be used for "high service", and another pair will be for "low service" to draw water from the wells.

Last year the water company spent about $90,000 building a 1,000,000-gallon storage tank on Tanner Hill.

asked and Belgardt got the answers relatively right.

Over 9,000 Lose Their Operator's Licenses in Aug.

Over 9,000 Pennsylvania motorists lost their driving privileges during August for violations of the motor vehicle code, it was reported today by State Bureau of Highway Safety officials.

O. D. Shipley, the Bureau's Director, announced that the drivers' licenses of 8,689 motorists were suspended and another 332 were revoked for violations of the state's traffic laws, or a total of 9,021 for the one-month period.

In the same month last year, 7,438 drivers lost their operating privileges—8,845 by suspension and 593 by revocation.

"The fact that 1,583 more motorists lost their driving privileges due to infractions of the law during August as compared to the same month in 1957 should serve as a warning to all motorists of the need to obey our traffic laws," Shipley said.

"It is also an indication that our present tough—but fair and impartial suspension system—is catching up with motorists who persist in breaking the law. The system deals more severely and harshly with the habitual violator as he builds up his own record by showing his disregard of the law and the welfare of his fellow motorists."

Shipley explained that the state has no desire to lift the license of any motorist, but will do so when a motorist by his own action shows disregard for the laws and the right of all citizens to use Pennsylvania's streets and highways in safety.

Special Salute To Keynote National Newspaper Week

NEW CASTLE, Pa. (AP) — A salute to newspapers as the principal source of "hometown" information will keynote National Newspaper Week observance in the eastern United States.

Publisher Richard E. Rentz of the New Castle News said in a statement that the term "hometown newspaper", which at one time implied only publications in smaller cities, now fits nearly all of America's dailies.

The New Castle News has been designated by the National Newspaper Week Committee to mark the formal start of the observance which begins Oct. 1. In conjunction with this, the New Castle News will mark the formal opening of a $300,000 addition to its publishing plant here.

"Newspapers everywhere are increasingly attentive to the fact that they are the vital avenue of information to the public about their home communities," Rentz said.

Readers get coverage around the world and around the block of the news that is essential to a free society."

Hollywood News

By BOB THOMAS
AP Motion Picture Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — They're filming Al Capone's life story now, and it makes you wonder why they've waited so long.

After all, haven't there been filmings of John Dillinger, Machine Gun Kelly, Pretty Boy Floyd, Bonnie Parker and other big and small fry of the underworld? So why wait to go after the top gangster of them all?

Allied Artists is filming that void with a picture called succinctly, "Al Capone." They hired Rod Steiger to play it, and he seems an excellent choice. There's a physical likeness, and Steiger has the underlying menace to handle the role.

"I'm very excited about it," he remarked during a lunch break. "This is not just another crime story aimed at the sensational market. If it were, I wouldn't be doing it."

The script was like that when I first read it. But we all worked over it for a month and now I think it's a good social document. It shows how an unscrupulous man can prey on society under a foolish law like prohibition.

"It also shows how the seeds that Capone sowed are still growing today. He was a great organizer. When he came in, the mob was only supplying beer to customers. He saw to it that they also supplied prezcos, glassware, tablecloths, trucks and so forth."

He was making two million dollars a week. He had to do something with the money, so he bought real estate and made other investments. He had a grip on the economic life of Chicago that still hasn't been removed."

Like all Actors Studio grads, Steiger is going after the role with fervor. He has done thorough research on Capone and talked to many who claimed to know him. "I've worked some of the things into the picture," he remarked.

Bond Purchases In County During August $116,449

Purchases of Series E and H savings bonds in Warren county were $116,449 during August last year. The total for the year to date now stands at $202,800,000. This is a gain of $16,500,000 or approximately six per cent over the same period last year.

For the state as a whole, purchases amounted to $33,700,000 compared with $36,700,000 last year. The total for the year to date now stands at $202,800,000. This is a gain of $16,500,000 or approximately six per cent over the same period last year.

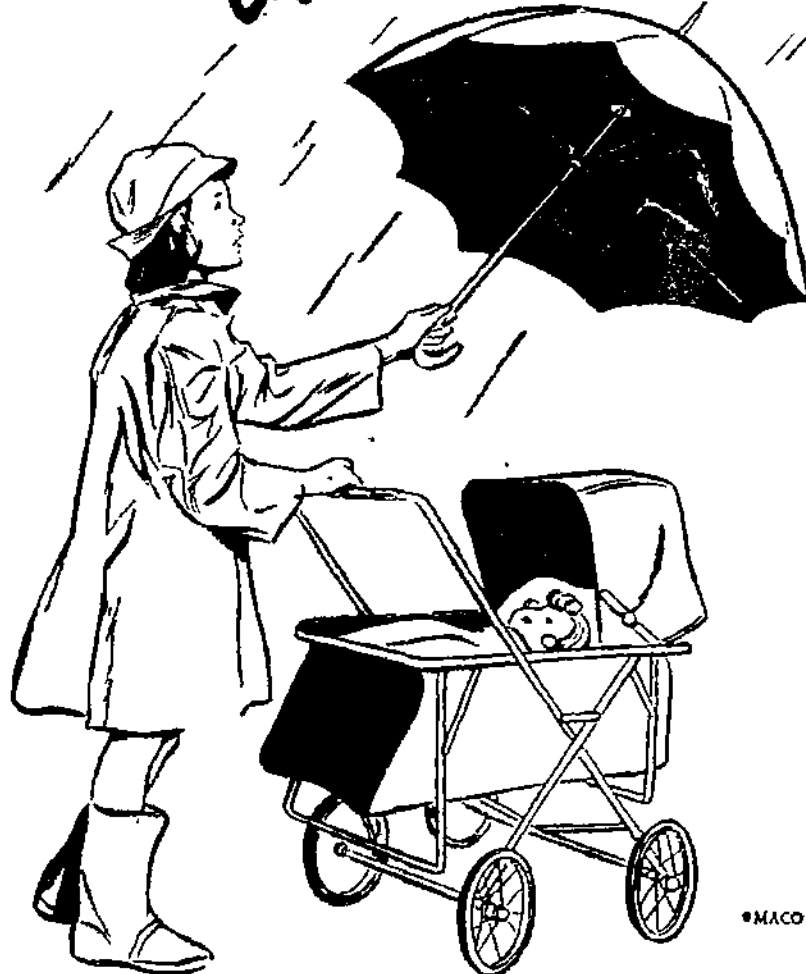

Pennsylvania has now reached 69 per cent of its assigned goal of $440,000,000 for this year. According to Charles S. Krumrine, state chairman of the U. S. Savings Bonds Committee for Pennsylvania, this is a favorable position and with a normal sales pattern for the remainder of the year, 100 per cent attainment is expected.

"We are proud of the bond-buying record of Pennsylvania," Krumrine declares, "because they are measuring up to their obligations to the nation in backing the efforts of the Treasury to raise money for meeting increased demands to preserve peace in the world. It is important that a part of every American's savings belongs in U. S. Savings Bonds."

"For instance, I found out that he was always eating apples. The reason was that his mother didn't like the car smell on his breath so he ate apples to remove it."

The picture will not carry Capone to his death of brain paresis in Florida. The fadeout will come after he gets a savage beating in prison from relatives of those he had had executed.

"MY ARTISTIC FRIENDS . . ."

No less a political personage than Carmine DeSapio, New York City Democratic boss, has pumped new life into that old one about politics making strange bedfellows.
DeSapio is one of the few political leaders left in the land who is portrayed as fitting the mold of the old-style boss. Some observers felt he made the picture seem real when he called the turn at the recent state party convention which chose New York's Democratic U. S. Senate nominee.
But now look at him. Down in New York's arty, Bohemian Greenwich Village sector there's a fuss over a plan to slice a 36-foot modern roadway right through picturesque Washington Square. And friend Carmine, who happens to live in the area, has aligned himself solidly on the side of preserving charm and quaintness.
Maybe this is a sign Democrats in New York are a little worried over the November outcome. It's the first time anybody ever made a serious bid for the poet and pallet vote. Could it be that the attic studio bunch holds the balance of power?

UNUSUAL ANNIVERSARY

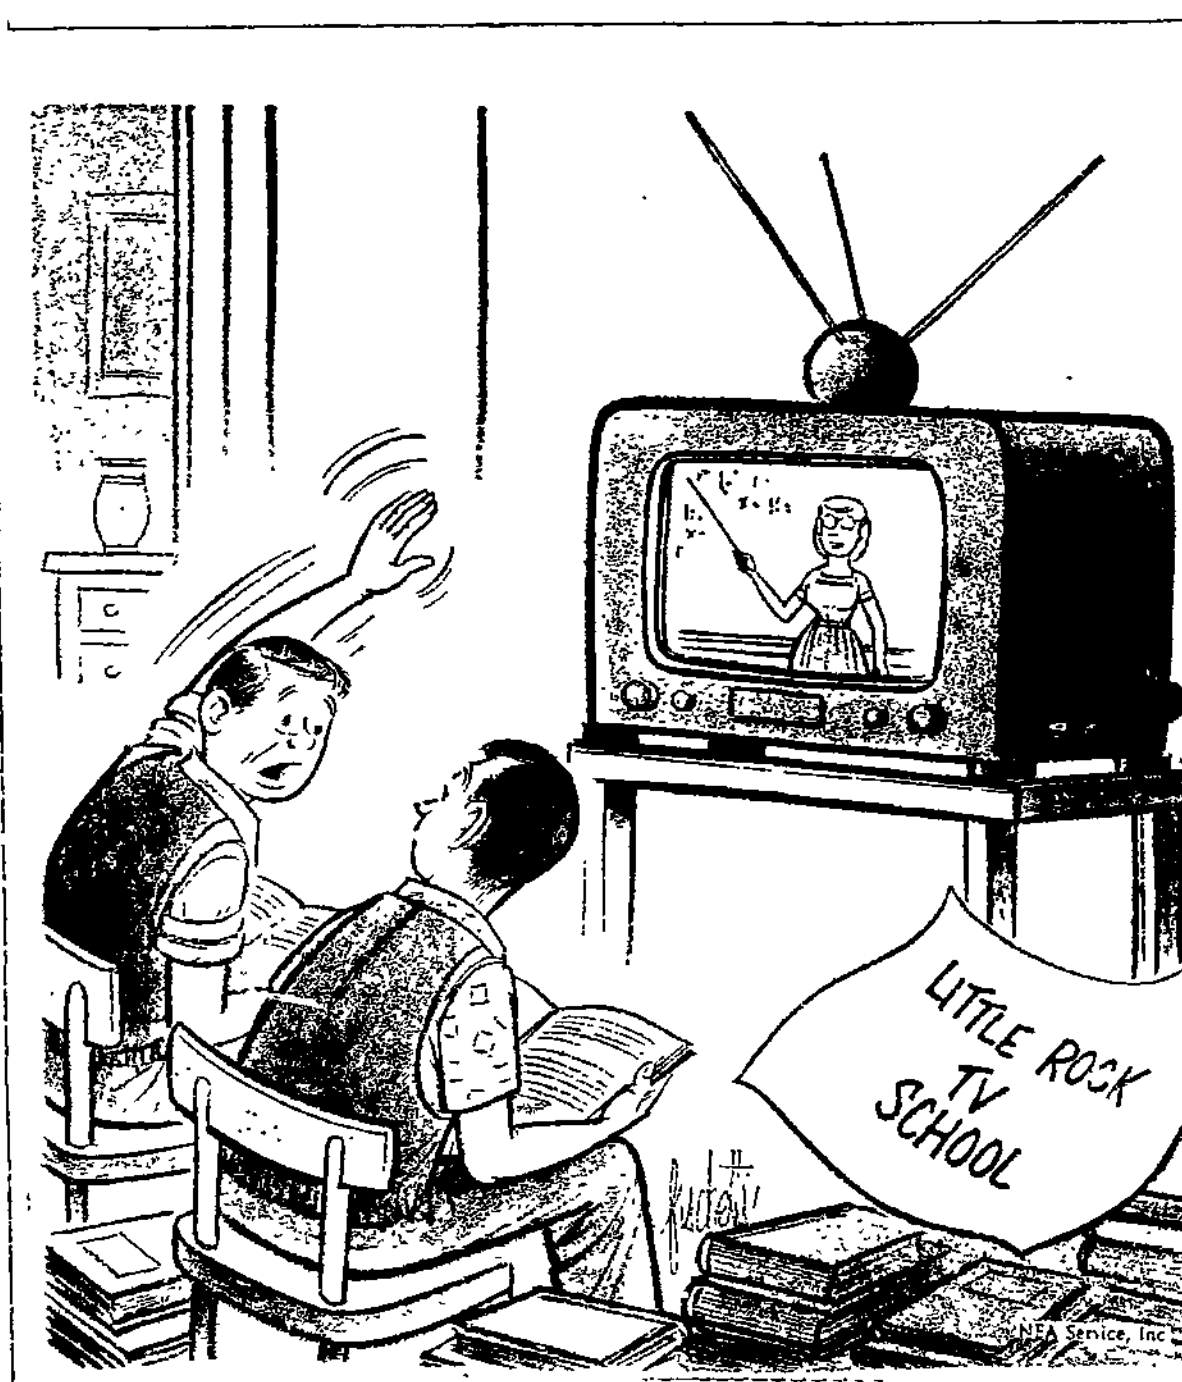

The American Printing House for the Blind, world's largest publishing house for the sightless, celebrated its 100th birthday this year, with expressions of gratitude from thousands to whom it has brought light.
In its one brick building in Louisville, Ky., the Printing House punches out Braille textbooks for 12,000 children in 109 schools for the blind and public-school classes throughout the country. Thousands of other books, trade publications and periodicals for adult readers, also are produced. Nearly 500,000 "Talking Book" records are turned out every year. The craftsmen also make three-dimensional maps, so blind scholars may feel the shape of continents and nations; and six-key Braillewriters, the sightless' equivalent of typewriters.
The October Reader's Digest, observing the centennial with an article by Blake Clark, "America's House of Braille and Talking Books," notes that there are about 335,000 sightless Americans, and each year about 27,000 more are added to this group. They turn to the Printing House for help.
The federal government paid for materials supplied to blind children, but as recently as 30 years ago, except for the Bible and a few religious publications, the only reading matter available for adults was educational.

Under the heading "Rotarian of the Month" The Rotary Cog carries the following item of general interest to readers in the area: "Judge Lex Flick, whose untiring and persistent efforts have culminated in his announcement last Monday that we are 'over the top' in the '57-'58 campaign for $5000 for the permanent endowment fund of the Rotary-sponsored Warren County Probation Association, the income from which helps to provide the County with a probation officer for boys."

Marlow Looks At TODAY'S NEWS

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst
Secretary of State Dulles has spoken out against "indecision or weakness" in the Far East crisis. But his address in New York Thursday night seemed to imply American indecision and weakness.
In fact the secretary may have issued an invitation to the Soviet Union to seize the diplomatic initiative once again in this grim battle for influence over the world's uncommitted millions. There would be a great deal of propaganda credit to be reaped from any peace-making gesture in the Far East.
Secretary Dulles' words seemed to indicate that the key to the solution of the Far East crisis—perhaps the only key—was in the hands of the Russians. He said he believes "the Soviet Union if it wanted to see a peaceful solution, could make that possible." This sounds more like an invitation than a challenge, and the Russians, when they have finished toying with the world's nerves, may even accept it.
There are many among America's allies who believe the key to the Far East crisis still lies in the heavy pressure of world opinion. The bulk of world opinion at the moment appears to see the United States' position in the whole matter of the offshore islands as hopelessly untenable, whatever their fears of Communist expansion might be.

"How Do I Get Permission To Leave the Room?"

Here and There

Science is slowly dispelling a mystery that has baffled mankind since prehistoric times—bird migration which is getting under way in the Warren area at the present time. The seasonal flights of birds stimulated the interest of Homer, Aristotle, and Biblical writers. No doubt migration interested men as long ago as 40,000 B.C., for as early as that men were painting and carving images of birds. The 19th-century ornithologist John James Audubon may have been the first bird-bander. Curious to know whether phoebes that nested on his father's property in Pennsylvania returned to the same place year after year, he fastened tiny bracelets around the ankles of five nestlings. The next summer, three of the five were back at their old haunts. Since Audubon's time, many scientists have studied migrations, and reported amazing feats. The National Geographic Society says a German investigator learned that captured starlings could find their way back to their nests from as far as 1,250 miles away. In another experiment, a shearwater taken from England to Boston reappeared at its nesting place in 12 days, having flown 3,000 miles across the Atlantic. Racking their brains for an explanation, students of bird migration wondered if the creatures had a sixth sense. Speculation occasionally ranged into the realm of psychic phenomena. In the early 1950's, experimenters began to turn up evidence that some birds use the sun as a compass. The birds they studied seemed to have a "time sense" to take account of the sun's movement across the sky. But other birds fly at night. Could it be they navigate by the stars? German scientists undertook an ingenious experiment to answer the question. Their subject was a warbler that migrates between Europe and the Nile Valley. The scientists built a planetarium with a 20-foot dome. The artificial sky could be varied to duplicate the stars as they would appear at various points and seasons on the earth. The birds were kept in a glass-topped cage beneath the dome. At migrating time they would face in the direction they should take to reach their traditional destinations. As the star patterns changed, the birds would alter their stances to stay on the proper course or return to the course. When the planetarium as an experiment put them at Lake Baikal, thousands of miles away in the Soviet Union, one warbler unexpectedly pointed toward its usual stalling place in Germany. Without the stars, the birds seemed to get lost. British investigators found with radar that during an overcast migrating birds fly around indecisively. When that happens, they tend to drift with the wind, and sometimes wander far off course until the stars are again visible. The experiments appear to support the theory that at least some birds take their bearings from heavenly bodies. Still, the mystery of bird migration is far from solved. And little is known about the physiological mechanisms of migration that give a bird the equivalent of a chronometer, a sextant, navigational tables, and a calculating machine of amazing accuracy.

Doorbells Will Ring as Both Parties Map All-Out Drives

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Democrats are taking four days at the end of this month to do what the Republicans are taking a full month for. This is to try to raise a lot of jack for this year's election campaigns.
The GOP collection, culminating on President Eisenhower's 68th birthday, October 14, is called a "Neighbor to Neighbor" drive. The other party will concentrate Sept. 26-29—a Friday through Monday weekend—on what it cutely calls "Dollars for Democrats."
The principal idea of all this activity is to get political giving out of the old rut, in which 90 per cent of the money has come from less than 1 per cent of the fat cats who customarily support a party.
MRS. JULIE KIRLIN, who ran the Republican house-to-house collection in Massachusetts so successfully for several years, is now in charge of the national drive at GOP headquarters here.
"There are about 160,000 precincts in the 48 states," she says. "If an average of only 10 volunteer workers was recruited in each precinct, we would have 1,600,000 workers."
"If those 10 workers rang only 10 doorbells, they would contact 16,000,000 homes or family workers."
"The average number of voters in each family is two. So that would be reaching 32,000,000 voters. If only a third responded, we would have over 10,000,000 new contributors."
But it goes without saying that they aren't going to get that much, in spite of the fact that interest in the drives has been whipped up this year by the American Heritage Foundation's national, non-partisan publicity campaign.
THERE HAVE BEEN OVER 900 newspaper and magazine advertising programs, 593 national TV shows on 104 programs, 3,300 spot radio announcements and 60,000 car cards.
Their "Don't pass the buck, give a buck" campaign will come to a climax at the end of September. But the indications are that Americans still aren't conditioned to giving money to politicians in quantity.
Reports to GOP headquarters indicate 25 states will take active part in the Neighbor to Neighbor program this year. Eleven other states will make passes at it.
Kenneth Birkhead, heading up the drive at Democratic headquarters, says 41 state chairmen have been named and he hopes to line up the other eight. But intensive drives will be held in only about a dozen states.
THESE DRIVES WERE TRIED in 1956 but weren't very well reported. The Democrats think they got half a million dollars. In 1957 they got maybe $100,000. This year they have reported contributions of $350,000 from all sources up to Sept. 1. This is way below what's needed.
The Democratic budget this year is $1.6 million. It is divided $700,000 for the national committee, $100,000 for Senate and House campaign committees—and $700,000 to pay off 1956 indebtedness. The Republican collection in 1956 was a "Thank You, Mr. President" drive. Every contributor got to send a postcard to the White House. A million contributors were rounded up and they kicked in about two million dollars.
Spencer T. Olin, new chairman of the Republican Finance Committee, reported at the Chicago meeting that the party's goal for this year was $3,600,000. It will be split three ways between national, Senate and House committees. Collections so far this year have been $675,000.

NEW YORK (AP)—Consumer watching has it all over bird watching this fall as a sport favored by businessmen.
And today some of those who have been watching most anxiously report the consumer is winging toward the appliance stores after dallying long in the soft good departments.
"Confidence is widespread in the industry that the downward trend ended around July and that the moderate gains in sales will continue in the months ahead," says Chris J. Witting, Westinghouse Electric vice president.
"Westinghouse sales began to climb this summer and we anticipate that this improvement will continue right through 1959 and 1960."
For the major appliance industry the reversal is cheering news indeed. Its downward slide started in August 1956, nearly a year before the general economy suffered.
The National Electrical Manufacturers Assn. has figures to show that better times isn't all just wishful thinking. Higher August sales this year than last are shown by makers of refrigerators, freezers, built-in electric ranges, storage water heaters, food waste disposers. Still trailing are sales of free standing ranges, and dishwashers.
The Gas Appliance Manufacturers Assn. reports that in the first eight months of the year sales of gas central heating equipment and water heaters were up, but gas ranges down.
The American Home Laundry Manufacturers Assn. reports August sales 25 per cent better than July's. The Vacuum Cleaner Manufacturers Assn. of Cleveland says July and August sales topped year ago figures by 19 per cent.
Reasons given for the major appliance industry's recent turnaround are: 1. Change in consumer attitude towards spending and away from caution; 2. Better credit atmosphere as old debts are paid off; 3. Growing replacement market for obsolete equipment; 4. Tight control at last of inventories so that consumers no longer have the idea of holding off in hopes of bargains from distress selling.
General Electric officials report their June, July and August sales better than last year and express confidence in the trend's continuing.

Boyle's Column

By EDDY GILMORE
DUBLIN (AP)—This is a story about a Scotsman who organized an airplane trip to Dublin to watch an Englishman direct an American in a film about Ireland on a location built by an Irish Jew.
The Scot is Jock MacGregor.
The Englishman, producer-director Michael Anderson.
The American, James Cagney.
The Irish Jew, Louis Elliman, who has constructed a miniature Hollywood 12 miles south of the Irish capital.
The film, "Shake Hands with the Devil."
It was a mad day, featured and interrupted by everything from Eamon de Valera to whispered suggestions of sabotage.
The morning began with a news conference in the skies, 16,000 feet above the Irish Sea. The conference was given by beautiful Dana Wynter, just in from California.
No cheesecake dummy. Miss Wynter discussed everything from medicine to mink with a degree of quick intelligence that stunned 47 British journalists asking the questions.
To one who queried, "Do you think that sex is here to stay?" Miss Wynter replied:
"Well, if it isn't, neither am I."
At Dublin Airport the chartered plane was met by kilted gilleens playing bagpipes and beating drums.
This was followed by a conducted tour of Dublin.
"Here is the statue of that great Irish patriot, Charles Stewart Parnell," said the guide with a brogue as thick as a Liffey fog.
Cagney hove into view.
"My ancestors came from Cork," he said, "and I've come to the conclusion that I love Ireland."

Matter of FACT
The Nile is believed to be the longest river in the world. It flows for approximately 4,160 miles from south to north. Though the land along the river is a hot, dry, barren wasteland, the river makes possible a bordering stretch of fruitful soil that can support as many as 1,000 persons for every square mile.

Gold Star Mothers' Day

From one end of the country to another, September 28 will be a day of special significance to the thousands of families who have lost a loved one in the service of their country and termed, appropriately, Gold Star Mothers' Day.

In explanation of this occasion, Warren County Chapter of this nationwide organization has prepared the following article for the Times-Mirror:

As we approach the day which Congress appointed to honor American Gold Star Mothers, the fourth Sunday of each September, we pause and remember it was Grace Darling Seibolt, of Virginia, who, having lost her son in combat in World War I, heard of another mother who recently had lost her son. Mrs. Seibolt wrote her a letter of sympathy and asked if she, in turn, would write to some other bereaved mother. Soon these groups met in homes and grew to such large numbers that, in 1928, they were incorporated and called American Gold Star Mothers, Incorporated.

After World War II and the Korean conflict, the mothers who lost sons or daughters or had those dying of injuries received in these conflicts, were admitted to membership. Our aim is to help other Gold Star Mothers who need help in any way; to care for the disabled veteran and family when possible; to teach children respect to our flag; see that graves of veterans are decorated on Decoration Day, and help in civic observances.

On September 27th, in Washington, D. C., there will be a banquet attended by Gold Star Mothers and Gold Star Dads from all states of our union. They will be addressed by Hon. Sumner G. Whitaker, veterans' administrator. Sunday at 1:00 p. m. in the Amphitheater at Arlington cemetery, Gold Star Mothers and Dads will be addressed by Hon. Wilber M. Bricker, Secretary of the Army. The Marine Band will furnish music and a wreath will be laid.

There will be a dedication of babies at this service. This church will cooperate with the Christian Laymen's Committee in presenting "Sermons from Science" in Beaty Auditorium next week and will omit the Wednesday prayer service. The building will be open all day Wednesday.

Housewife Should Plan Now for Coming Winter

Fall is the ideal time for the housewife to take a personal inventory and make plans for the months when, with vacation over, the family settles down to a more routine existence.

If you began summer tired out from too much clubwork, or bored from too few outside activities or with a feeling of frustration for the little you accomplished during last winter, now is the time to sit down and figure out how to make the months ahead a different story.

If you headed more committees and went to more meetings last year than you could manage without running yourself ragged, you had better decide right now how much you can do easily and well and cut this fall's activities to fit your strength and spare time.

If you sat around home and got cabin fever last winter, now is the time to figure out what you would really like to do, and set the wheels in motion.

If you saw last winter come and go without any sense of accomplishment, perhaps it was because you didn't start the fall with any goals laid out for yourself. What do you want to accomplish this year?

Put it down on paper, and then set to work checking off your list item by item as you get things done. It's easy for anyone, but especially so for a housewife, to drift along aimlessly unless she stops now and then to set a few goals to work toward.

Fall is housecleaning time for most housewives. It ought to be personal inventory time, too.

There is so much a woman can do and so much she can accomplish with a little foresight and planning and thoughtful trimming of her activities to meet her interests and needs.

Some 25 years ago he finished out a duplicate for me in Boston and had been saving one of the hands to show me. Mr. Ellis sat South.

When his opponents stopped at two no-trump he decided to get into the bidding with his major suits and tried three spades first. West's double sounded so strong that Mr. Ellis decided to run to four clubs before getting around to his heart suit.

West doubled again and this time North redoubled and Mr. Ellis felt that he might as well leave it in.

He was right. West opened the six of diamonds, Dumny's jack forced East's ace, which South ruffed. The ace and king of spades took care of dummy's two major suit cards and a heart was ruffed. The king of diamonds was cashed and a diamond ruffed; another heart ruff put Mr. Ellis back in dummy and one more diamond ruff established the suit. He led his last club and the best West could do with his big hand was to make one trick.

Mr. Ellis' final comment on the hand was "After 25 years I still don't approve of my bidding but the result was phenomenal and it's hands like this that make bridge interesting."

New Jefferson Pavilion Ready By November 1st

The Jefferson Pavilion of Warren General Hospital which will add 24 beds to the hospital's facilities will be ready for use on November 1, according to a report made yesterday afternoon to the Hospital's Board of Directors. The general contractor, Beyer Construction Company, said that the remodeling of the Pavilion building is 80% complete and the Directors discussed the opening of the building.

Tentative plans call for an open house of the Pavilion for the public's inspection on November 2. Policies regarding use of the new facility as an "intermediate care unit" will be revealed to the community prior to its opening.

Hospital Administrator Joe Williamson in his report to the Board gave statistics comparing use of the Hospital in August, 1958 with August, 1957, as follows:

	August 1957	August 1958
Adults	408	424
Newborn	68	84
Adult, pa. dys	2651	2712
Charity pat.	18	22
Av. daily census	97	102
Av. lgh stay	6.3 days	6.2
Percent occ. 67.3		70.8

Mr. Williamson said the 84 babies born last month was a near record number bettered only by the 88 babies born in August of 1956.

The Board also appointed John L. Harrington, M.D., to the medical staff of the hospital as an associate in medicine.

Gov. of Alabama Plans Hearing for Condemned Man

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—A 55-year-old illiterate Negro handyman was called before Gov. James E. Folsom today for a clemency hearing which may save his life.

Jimmy Wilson is under sentence to die in the electric chair Oct. 24 for robbing an elderly white widow.

Sources close to the governor say they expect him to commute Wilson's sentence to life imprisonment. Wilson then would have to serve 15 years before he would be eligible for parole.

Wilson was given the death sentence for robbing Mrs. Estelle Barker, 82, at her home at Marion, Ala. The woman testified Wilson threatened her life, choked her and tried to rape her. Wilson took $1.95 in the robbery.

Instead of being charged with attempted rape, which carries a maximum penalty of 20 years in prison, Wilson was indicted for robbery and nighttime burglary, both capital offenses. He was tried only on the first indictment. He had served two prison terms for grand larceny.

MOTORIZED BIRTH RATE—A world-wide survey reveals a steady increase in the motor vehicle population, reports the U.S. Department of Commerce. The survey, by the Business and Defense Services Administration, attributes the increase to higher living standards. World registration totaled over 108 million as of last January 1, up 5.6 per cent during 1957. Increases, particularly in passenger cars, are expected to continue.

Camp Burglars Are Sentenced To Prison Terms

Fair warning was sounded in Warren County Court this morning that those who prey on the hundreds of isolated camps throughout the area will be dealt with severely.

Judge Alexander C. Flick, Jr. stated that the camp owners were entitled to protection of their property and "That's the way it's going to be."

The VanGuilder brothers of nearby New York State, who burglarized a record number of 41 camps in southern Warren County, were given workhouse and prison sentences. Another man, who shot up a hunting camp, was ordered to spend 30 contemplative days in the local jail to ponder his misdeed.

Most harsh sentence was handed out to Robert P. VanGuilder, 49, of Stockton. After he admitted he was sorry he "did what I did," Judge Flick sentenced him to spend from 18 months to six years in Western Penitentiary. He will be eligible for parole in 18 months and be on probation the remainder of the time.

Judge Flick told the man who pleaded guilty to burglary charges that he could spend the rest of his life in and out of prison if that was what he wanted. The elder VanGuilder had a previous record of two felony sentences in Chautauque County, N. Y. for which he had "gotten off" lightly. The judge this morning told him he could not always expect such lenient treatment.

Ellsworth VanGuilder, 35, formerly of Jamestown, was sentenced to spend from 11 to 23 months in Allegheny County Workhouse. He was apparently the ringleader of the pair and had participated in all the burglaries, while his brother could only be connected with 30 of them.

However, Judge Flick took notice of Ellsworth's faithful wife and five children, the eldest aged 7, plus no previous criminal record. But the jurist also pointed out that for their crimes, 41 burglaries, plus 2 more in Forest County, they could receive the maximum sentence of 20 years for each offense.

Ordered to spend 30 days in Warren County Jail was Arthur G. Conklin, 24, of Tidoute RD. He was charged with malicious mischief after firing five 30-30 rifle slugs into a Deerfield Township hunting camp owned by Milo Yount of Somerville. Damage was estimated at $100 and the young man, whose father accompanied him to court, was ordered to make restitution.

District Attorney Samuel F. Bonavita, who represented the Commonwealth in the proceedings, told the court that Warren County had between 4,000 and 5,000 hunting camps within its boundaries and that if these were to be enjoyed, protection was necessary. He said he would seek prison sentences for all future persons engaged in depredations.

State Trooper Paul Dell, who apprehended Conklin, gave testimony in that case. Chief Deputy Don Allen, who along with Trooper Cpl. Joe Mastrian handled the VanGuilder case, told the court that only a small portion of the "thousands of dollars" of loot could be recovered since it had been converted into cash over a period of a year and one-half.

Ellsworth VanGuilder was specifically charged with theft of guns and electrical appliances from the John Urbansic hunting camp in Deerfield Township. Robert was charged specifically with the theft of a TV set and other articles from the Sam Bowes camp in Deerfield Township.

In other court action this morning, Judge Flick handed out an indeterminate sentence to Muncy State Industrial Home for Women.

Mrs. Alberta Jane Moorcraft, who admitted to 31 years of age and obtaining money by false pretense, appeared for the second time. Her case had been continued after an original guilty plea so that the complete record could be scanned. She fleeced several local merchants with worthless checks in a manner of living to which she has apparently become accustomed.

The judge also interviewed six gentlemen about various arrears in their support payments.

Bituminous coal production and electrical power output showed a slight increase, the bureau added.

First Adult Class At Northern Area Monday Evening

LANDER—A total of 78 persons have thus far registered for adult education courses in the first semester of Northern Area's school term. Several others have tentatively indicated an intention to do so and it is hoped all will have registrations in by Monday evening.

Present plans fall for initial classes at 7:00 p. m. Monday, offering agriculture, home economics, arts and crafts, driver education, industrial shop (woodworking or metal), and typing. Class sessions in these courses will continue each Monday evening through January 19, excepting those dates which fall in holiday periods.

Persons who registered for additional courses and who did not specify one of the above as a second choice will receive a refund of the $5 registration fee they paid. It is hoped the condition of the highway which passes the campus will be sufficiently improved by February so that enough registrants will be procured to enable some of these to be offered during the second semester: bookkeeping, algebra, dramatics, music, office practice, practical nursing, and shorthand.

Among the special features of this first semester's course will be an assembly of adult education students on Monday evening, October 8. At that time a special team from the General Motors Corporation will be here to present a special show entitled, "Previews of Progress."

Any adults not enrolled in adult education and interested in this program are cordially invited to attend without charge. It will be held in the auditorium of Eisenhower High School and will begin at 8:00 p. m.

DuBois Man Dies Of Heart Attack On Fishing Trip

Harry L. Spackman, a 77-year-old retired B. & O. railroad man from DuBois, died suddenly on a fishing expedition along the Allegheny river in Limestone township about a mile above the Kinzua bridge Thursday, according to a report following an investigation by Trooper William Timmins and Coroner Ed Lowrey.

Spackman left DuBois about seven o'clock in company of a companion, Park H. Phillips, intending to spend a leisurely day along the river. They first visited the Tionesta area and finally about noon stopped at the roadside rest just north of Tidoute. While Phillips prepared a steak fry, Spackman started over a steep fifty-foot embankment toward the river's edge. Later when Phillips called to advise Spackman that the meal was ready, there was no response. Investigating, he found Spackman at the bottom of the bank, partly submerged, with his face in the water. Pulling him out, he drove to Warren and reported the incident to the borough police, who in turn notified the State Police, who hastened to the scene with the coroner.

It was evident that death had been a most instantaneous. A small laceration over the right eye and bruise on the cheek bone, along with bruises on his left leg and hand, justified the theory that he may have been stricken as he started over the embankment, and perhaps slid and rolled to the river's edge.

An autopsy performed after the body was brought to Warren divulged the fact that the man died from a heart attack. Papers in his billfold indicated that he was being treated by a physician in the Harrisburg area for the heart condition.

The embankment was so steep where the tragedy occurred it was deemed impossible to bring the body up to the roadside rest. Eugene Smith, a resident of the township, who was in a boat with outboard motor, volunteered to take the body to the firemen's wharf at Tidoute where it was loaded in the funeral car and brought to Warren. Following the autopsy, it was released and taken to DuBois. Plans for the funeral have not been learned.

Mr. Spackman is survived by two sons and three daughters: F. T. Spackman, Camp Hill; H. A. Spackman, Dearborn, Mich.; Mrs. L. Rumpus, Hummelston, Pa.; Mrs. Floyd Bishop, Massillon, O., and Mrs. Dar Lewis, Hershey. There are 11 grandchildren.

The POWER of FAITH

by Howard Brodie

Paralyzed at the height of his missionary career in China, Bishop Samuel Schereschewsky with the loving care of his wife went on to do the most important work of his life. Suffering sunstroke at 50, he lost the use of his arms and legs. Doctors doubted that he would be capable of any sustained mental effort. His wife nursed him, believing "As thy days so shall thy strength be."

For the remaining 25 years of his life, he was carried up stairs or lifted into chair or bed. Yet, with one usable, calloused finger, or grasping a stick, he typed a translation of the Bible into Chinese, working eight hours a day, every day, for eight years, believing "God had called me to it and had especially prepared and fitted me for it." His life was active until death. Bishop Schereschewsky and his wife were buried side by side under one cross.

Popular Pirate Pitcher to Be Guest on Sports Program

National League leader in innings pitched and most games started in 1957, with 277 and 38 respectively, Robert Bartness Friend will appear in Warren October 13 as a guest of Warren Council Knights of Columbus Sports Night affair in Beatty school.

Friend also went over the century mark in strikeouts for the second consecutive year with 143.

Although he got off to a disappointing start in '57, Bob finished very strong as he posted a 7-2 chart during the final eight weeks of the season. He won the season's opener against the then — New York Giants, but ran into tough luck early and lost the close ones.

BOB FRIEND

Bob has been with the Pirates since 1951, breaking into pro baseball in 1950 with Pittsburgh's Waco Club in Big State League. The 27-year-old hurler pitched a no-hitter that year against Wichita Falls winning 10-0. He finished the '50 season with the Pirates' AAA Indianapolis club in American Association and was brought to the majors the next spring.

One of the outstanding athletes in Morton High school's history, Bob played baseball, football, basketball and golf and was captain of the football team and an All-State basketball selection in 1948. He was All-State in baseball in 1949, and had four years of Junior American Legion baseball to his credit, also.

Oldest player on Pittsburgh roster in the point of continuous service, Bob really came into his own as a major leaguer in 1955. That was the season he led National League in ERA with a glittering 2.84. It marked the first and only time in Senior Circuit's history that a pitcher with an eight place ball club had won the ERA crown.

Bob holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Purdue University. During the off season, he works for an investment brokerage firm in Pittsburgh. Tuesday after the 1957 season ended, Bob was married to the attractive Pat Koval. The new Mrs. Friend met Bob while she was working as a medical secretary for Dr. Joseph Finegold, Pirates' team physician.

Dragons Journey To Titusville for Section II Game

Third game in Section II conferred series faces the Warren Dragons tomorrow when they will be guests of Titusville Rockets at 1:30.

Warren has won one, lost one Titusville dropped two out of as many starts.

Coach Chari Port of Titusville has been moving squad members from position to position filling slots left vacant by injuries.

Star man in the backfield, George Dewey will not play tomorrow.

Dragon head Ralph Veights reported that left half Bob Haslet, may start, idle as a starter last week with knee injury.

Warren boasts 11 lettermen, Titusville 8.

Port said he plans to battle Warren down to the wire.

Veights commented on the game by saying that although "Titusville has been beaten twice, there's a potential there that can give somebody trouble".

Ohio State Mentor Says He Is Pleased With His Team

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

When Woody Hayes smiles, then there can't be too much wrong with the world — at least with Ohio State's football world.

And who can blame the Buckeyes' coach? His worldly possessions include, beside family and home, the nation's No. 1 team, the Big Ten favorite, the ground-munching offense you ever did see, and now a passing attack designed to offset his rugged ground game.

This, and the general decorum of the team is what had Hayes, a dour man when it comes to evaluating football practices, glowing after Wednesday's session.

"They looked better, much better," he said. "I think they're beginning to rise to the occasion now."

The "occasion" is the Buck's opener Saturday at home against Southern Methodist, a Southwest Conference team that includes Don Meredith, a quarterback who led the nation's passers in percentage last year.

The pass, hitherto a keep-em-honest weapon in the Buck's offense, has been getting a bit more attention this fall from Hayes and his quarterback, Frank Kremblas. Kremblas had a .417 completion average last year, with 15 out of 36 for 243 yards and four touchdowns.

In comparison, halfback Don Clark and fullback Bob White were 2-3 in the Big Ten's final rushing statistics. Clark gained 52 yards, White 507, both more than double Kremblas' efforts. All three are slated to start against SMU.

North Carolina State had its backs working on Saturday opponent Maryland's pass operations in a defensive move, while Illinois drilled against home-opener opponent UCLA's aerial maneuvers.

Colgate polished a passing attack that looks to be their main hope against Cornell Saturday. Coach Fred Rice ceased for the week all heavy operations because of an abundance of bruises and sprains.

Yale did a bit of offense and defense on the passing game. The Eli's meet Connecticut Saturday, a team which blistered Springfield from the air in winning its opener.

Oklahoma State's aerial offense, which won a duel with Denver last Saturday, had Coach Cliff Speegle smiling, while he also worked his pass defense against expected North Texas State patterns.

Quarterback Bob Placek did the bulk of the throwing as Michigan Coach Bennie Oosterbaan prepared for the opener against Southern Cal. Syracuse's Ben Schwartzwalder tried to set up some preventive means against Boston College passer Don Allard. He planned to counter heavily with his own passer, Chuck Zimmerman.

Rocky Gerarde Is Booked for Go on Erie PALS Card

Rocky Gerarde will be appearing on Erie PALS 10-bout boxing card in Gannon auditorium tomorrow evening and there is a slight possibility that an opponent for Joe Campagna may be found.

Rocky and Joe returned to Warren yesterday after spending two days in Erie training with the PALS fighters. Rocky was fortunate when he sparred with a ranking light-heavyweight, Bobby Hughes.

In 1954, Bobby was ranked No. 7 in the nation. It is reported that Gerarde traded punches very well with the professional fighter who said that Tom will undoubtedly go far. Hughes opposed Paul Anderson on a televised bout recently. On the next pro card in Erie, it is expected that Hughes will be featured in a 10-round event.

On the card tomorrow night will be Johnny Bizzaro, making his last curtain call in amateur ranks. Win or lose, the Erie lightweight will turn professional within the next month. His younger brother Paul, is making his boxing debut.

First bout is expected to start around 8:30.

The card:

Rocky Gerarde vs. Jimmy Hartzell; Johnny Bizzaro vs. Lamar Adams; Bobby Sandella vs. Pat Roamer; Alvin Connors vs. B. J. Thompson; Paul Bizzaro vs. Casper Pope; Larry Bortnick vs. Rich Benson; Perry Keys vs. James Ralston.

Vinnie DiNicola was slated to box Jim Berdis in the feature event. While sparring with Hughes first of the week, Vinnie received an accidental punt on the head, causing a chin gash. Seven stitches were required to close the wound.

Two Tournaments on Tap on Kinzua Course

With two tournaments to get off over this weekend, Kinzua Valley golf committees anxiously are scanning the skies for possibility of another all-day rain.

Saturday, the Industrial Loop attempts once more to get off its 18-hole tournament postponed from last Sunday as the heavens opened up for a full day of rain. The Saturday affair will pit 80 golfers and their handicaps against par and the lowest gross is to be determined winner. This will be done in three flights.

Prizes for the tourney are to be golf balls.

Sunday, at noon area golfers vie for the Babe Didrikson Zaharias trophy, as they battle against scores of a couple area professionals. This is also to be a handicap affair.

Columbia Looks Like a Shoo-in To Win the Cup

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — Unless Columbia is swallowed by a whale almost everyone along the America's Cup waterfront expects her to win the 107-year-old trophy today with the greatest of ease.

The American defender has shown complete superiority over Spectre, the British challenger.

She's piled up her 3-0 margin in the best-of-seven series with victories in light, moderate and heavy air. Even when a fourth race was called because the yachts couldn't finish within the time limit, Columbia was a mile ahead.

Even the British have now conceded publicly that Columbia is the faster boat.

When asked if Columbia were the superior boat, Spectre's assistant helmsman, Colin Ratsey, answered simply: "I would say so."

Champion Moore Meets Canadian On December 10th

MONTREAL (AP) — Ancient Archie Moore, whose age ranges in various estimates from 41 to 49 years, will defend his light heavyweight boxing title for the seventh time on Dec. 10 against durable Yvon Durelle, the New Brunswick fisherman.

Articles for the 15-round televised scrap were signed Thursday. Moore, who recently admitted he was 49 although the books list him as 45 and some say 41, will get $100,000. Durelle will receive a guarantee of $12,000 or 20 per cent of the net gate.

Archie, who last defended his title against Tony Anthony Sept. 27, 1957, checked in for the signing ceremonies weighing 192 pounds — so he said. Others thought he weighed quite a bit more.

Classic in Store For Youngsville And North Area

A real classic is in store for Youngsville-Northern Area fans Saturday at 1:30 when the Knights will host the Eagles in a rival contest.

Youngsville and Northern Area have been battling back and forth for eight years, this always an important game for both squads.

Hosting Knights won their opener and are opposing a no-win, two-loss Youngsville team.

Fans are reminded of the road conditions existing going to the school. Sugar Grove-Lander road is closed, recommended way is on the Russell-Lander road.

Joe Inter for Youngsville will start after being idle a week with an ankle injury. Jim Fox will be in for Northern Area after having a bout with the flu.

Remainder of both teams is in good physical condition.

Condition of Covington Only Worry for Haney

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Milwaukee Manager Fred Haney could probably announce his World Series opening game lineup today if only he were assured of the physical fitness of Wes Covington, the Braves' hard-hitting left fielder.

Unfortunately, Haney will not know for certain the condition of Covington's ailing left knee until Sunday or Monday at the earliest. The left-handed slugger, hobbled by poor underpinnings practically all season, is scheduled to undergo an extensive examination of the damaged knee within the next few days. Wes also is plagued by a pulled muscle in his right thigh.

There is a possibility that the knee will have to be drained once more before the start of the series. Until the past month, the draining took place twice a week. In the last four weeks, according to Haney, Covington's knee has had to be drained only once a week.

"Usually after the draining," Haney said, "I've had to rest him a day because the knee becomes sore. Should the knee have to be drained again, I suppose we'd be better off if I did not play him against a left-handed pitcher."

The New York Yankees have not as yet announced their first game pitcher, but Haney, like many others, assumes it will be southpaw Whitey Ford.

Frankie Ryff To Meet Canadian in Capital Arena

WASHINGTON (AP)—Canadian welterweight champion Gale Kerwin tries to improve his standing in this country tonight when he faces Frankie Ryff in a 10-round bout in Capital Arena.

The odds, though slight, are against him.

Ryff, a Bronx lightweight, is a 7-5 favorite.

Friday night faithful across the country will have a chance to see not only the battlers in the televised show (NBC, 9 p.m. EST) but also the managerial bow of Barney Ross.

Ross, former welter and lightweight champion, took over Ryff two months ago. With his own second of the 1930s, Whitey Binstein, Ross has been prepping Frankie for a crack at the national rankings.

THE BABE LIVES ON

In its initial attempt to stage the Babe Didrikson Zaharias "Beat The Pro" open golf tournament this Sunday at the Kinzua Fairways, the Warren County Unit of the American Cancer Society hopes for a record crowd of area golfers to participate. The match, open to women as well as men will get underway at noon Sunday with the exhibition match between pros Fred Lindstrom of the CVCC and Floyd Drake of the Chautauqua Club. Two individual trophies, the beautiful Sword Trophy, symbol of the ACS will be awarded the champion in each division, by Dr. John Larsen, President of the local unit of the American Cancer Society.

It is fitting that everyone get behind this drive to help the Babe live on, since the first lady of sports took so much of her time to help combat the disease which ultimately claimed her life just two years ago this September 27.

In an all-out effort to raise funds for the Babe Didrikson Zaharias Memorial Fund of the ACS, golf tournaments such as this one are being staged in every state in the U. S. With all proceeds being earmarked for the Babe's Memorial Fund, the cancer research scientists can continue to hunt down killer cancer and find the cure.

Support the Babe Didrikson Zaharias Beat The Pro golf tourney by wearing a spectator tag, being sold by the Warren High Y-Teens. Tags entitle the bearer to witness Sunday's match, or may be worn to show your fighting spirit in contributing to the Babe's Memorial Fund.

Sunday's first annual Zaharias open golf match is a sporting event in which everyone can be a good sport... golfer or not. Remember to buy that spectator ticket today through Saturday from the Y-Teens.

Sizing Up World Series

Last of a Series
By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—This writer expects the New York Yankees to bounce back and defeat the Milwaukee Braves in a five-game 1958 World Series.

Two shutout victories and three wins from Lew Burdette, plus a couple of sensational catches by left fielder Wes Covington and a dramatic tenth inning homer by Ed Matthews in the fourth game that evened the series, sparked the Braves to the 1957 championship.

The Yankees were below par physically. First baseman Bill Skowron missed most of the series with a leg injury. He was replaced by Harry Simpson, who managed one hit in 12 times at bat and Elston Howard, a comparative newcomer to the position.

A lame shoulder kept Mickey Mantle out of one game and a leg ailment hampered him in most of the others.

The Yankees are stronger than they were a year ago. Bob Turley is a vastly improved pitcher. Ryne Duren is a better reliever than either Bob Grim or Tommy Byrne.

Tony Kubek has settled down nicely at shortstop after flubbing a couple of pivotal plays as a third baseman in the '57 series. And Norm Siebern, the New York left fielder, can cover more ground than veteran Enos Slaughter, who started several games last year.

The Yankees will have played 155 regular season games—one tie—by the time the series opens in Milwaukee next Wednesday. But nowhere in the 1958 season were they called upon to play a crucial game or series in the runaway American League race.

The Braves, with probably a stronger club than 1957, are well equipped to give the Yanks another rough time.

But it's our opinion that Casey Stengel's men will be up for this one with Skowron producing most of the timely hits and Don Larsen turning in the best pitching.

Best Crop Year Is Recorded in State Since 1866

HARRISBURG—This is the best crop year Pennsylvania has had since the keeping of re-cords started in 1866.

Record yields of corn, oats, wheat, potatoes and tobacco are predicted by the Pennsylvania Crop Reporting Service of the State Department of Agricul-ture.

Despite some losses due to delayed harvesting, the average wheat yield is estimated at 29.5 bushels per acre, exceeding the previous high set in 1954 by 1.5 bushels.

Corn prospects continue ex-cellent and as of September 1 production was forecast at 76,-080,000 bushels, a whopping 42 per cent above last year and 6 per cent above Pennsylvania's previous high of 71,736,000 bushels produced in 1956. Yield is estimated at 60 bushels an acre which compares with 46 bushels last year and the pre-vious record of 56 bushels set in 1956.

Oats harvest, usually com-pleted by September 1, was still underway on that date in north-ern sections of the Common-wealth. It was delayed in many areas by wet weather and in several instances fields were too wet to permit use of heavy equipment.

However, the expected oats yield is 43.5 bushels an acre, which will exceed the previous high, 42 bushels an acre, estab-lished in 1951, and 1955. Pro-duction is estimated at 32,060,-000 bushels compared with 30,-264,000 bushels produced last year.

With a 1,750 pound per acre yield forecast, tobacco produc-tion should break all records since drastic acreage reductions were made in the early 1930's. Harvest got underway ahead of schedule this year. August weather was favorable for growth and maturing of tobac-co. With cutting well under-way, the crop is reported to be of generally good quality with leaves thin and of good width and length. The previous high production record was 1,700 pounds an acre.

While potato production is well above last year's figures, the crop will not exceed the State average due to reduction in total acreage. Late summer potato production is indicated at 702,000 hundredweight and fall potato production at 7,677,-000 hundredweight.

Some Katahdins are still showing green in some locali-ties. Digging of cobbles started in south and central regions in early August.

New seedlings of hay are mak-ing excellent growth. Second and third cuttings of hay made good progress during the month of August despite rainy weather. Hay in most sections of the State made excellent growth, but due to poor weather for curing, some quality was lost.

About 3.9 million tons are ex-pected to be cut compared with 3.2 million last year.

The U. S. Department of Ag-riculture indicates that a con-tinuing increase in crop pro-duction this year exceeds any-thing yet reached by American agriculture. Among the leading crops—corn, cotton, soybeans, barley, oats, hay, spring wheat, and sorghum grain—all but cotton and oats have record or near-record production pros-pects and all but hay are es-timated at record per acre yields.

7:30, Goodwill Class at the par-sonage; Wednesday, 7:00, choir practice, and 8:00, World Day of Prayer Service; Thursday, 6:30, Kingdom Builders Class at the YWCA for its 10th anniver-sary, reservations to be made with Mr. and Mrs. Max Crosby, September 29-October 3, Ser-mons From Science."

1ST PRESBYTERIAN
"Keeping the Com onplace Sacred" will be Rev. Donald H. Spencer's sermon topic at 11:00 a. m.; Carroll Fowler will play "Jesus, Where Thy People Meet" by McKinley and "Bene-dictus" by Reger; Violet Borg will sing "The Twenty-Third Psalm" by Malotte; the Sanctu-ary Choir will sing "He Watch-ing Over Israel" by Mandels-ohn. There will be a dedication service for teachers and officers of the church school.

AT FIRST EUB
Rally Day and Missions Sun-day will be observed during the Sunday school hour, with Mrs. Kinney speaking on "Bright Spots in Mission Work Around the World." It will also be Pro-motion Day for primary, junior and young people's department. At 11:00, Mrs. Kinney will speak on "They Proclaim Him"; C. T. Prichard will play "Con-templation" by Flagler; the choir anthem will be "Our Help in Ages Past" by Lorenz.

TRINITY MEMORIAL
The rector will preach at the 11:00 a. m. Service of Morning Prayer; music will include "Hark, Hark, My Soul" by Shel-ley, sung by the Senior Choir; organ music will be "I Will Sing My Maker's Praises" by Dole and "Dialogue" by Marchand.

Religious News

By DAVID LANCASHIRE
JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Christianity, brought to this Moslem land by the colonial Dutch and Portuguese, has not only sur-vived the demise of Western rule, it is on the increase.

The Indonesian Ministry of Re-ligious Affairs reports there were less than 4 1/2 million Christians in the island nation when indepen-dence was achieved in 1950. Now there are about six million.

Leaders of the 3 1/2 million Prot-estants and 2 1/2 million Roman Catholics in the land of 75 million Moslems advance several reasons for the increase.

When the Dutch left Indonesia to go its independent way, the Christian churches began putting emphasis on the training and de-velopment of native Indonesian church leaders and clergymen.

"They immediately brought the church closer to the people," says the Rev. Simon Marantika of the National Council of Churches.

When the newly independent government first took steps to spread education among the 3,000 islands, it found the best schools in the country were run by Chris-tian missions. Many students adopted Christianity with their ed-ucation.

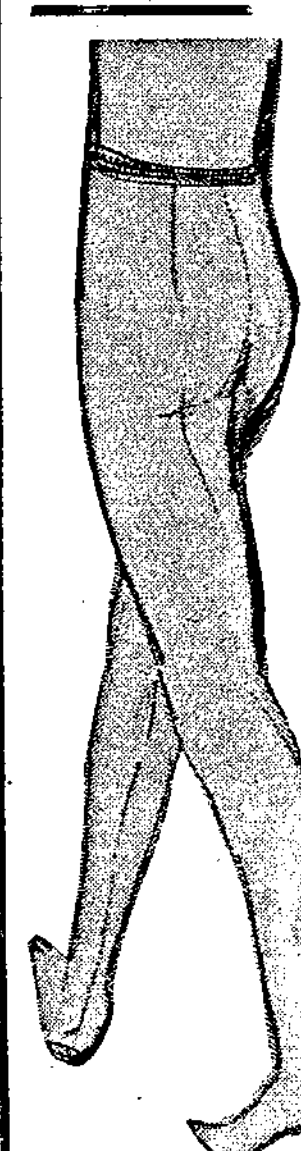

"Also," adds the Rev. Mr. Mar-antika, "there had been a great deal of unrest in the country and some have come to Christianity as a sort of a sanctuary."

Much of the unrest has been caused by the Darul Islams, a sect of Moslems who have waged bloody warfare for eight years to press their demand for a theo-cratic Moslem state.

"They are not working against Christianity in particular," says

Radio and TV

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK (AP)—"The Plot to Kill Stalin," the first Playhouse 30 offering of the ne wseason on CBS-TV Thursday night, was a fascinating drama that imagin-atively probed a secret chapter of history.

Under the direction of Delbert Mann, this superb Fred Coe pro-duction took the television audi-ence inside the Kremlin and in-side the minds of a group of men whose ruthless drive for power has resulted in no peace in our time.

Seldom has TV drama presented such a gallery of vivid character-ization by an outstanding cast. Life in a police state, as staged with remarkable realism, appeared as grim for the chiefs of police as for the prisoners.

Melvyn Douglas brilliantly por-trayed the aging Stalin — relent-less, crafty, bold, suspicious. As his private secretary, his con-fidante Poskrebyshev, Eli Wallach played a man of unprincipled, mindless loyalty.

Oscar Homolka, in the role of Khrushchev, was a politician whose falsely jovial manner failed to disguise his lust for power. As Beria, E. G. Marshall played a suave killer. Luther Ad-ler's Molotov and Thomas Gomez's Malenkov were equally memorable.

The world may never learn the entire truth about the secret con-flicts within the Kremlin in recent years. But on the basis of known facts, David Karp projected a highly plausible fiction in his fine script.

"The Plot to Kill Stalin" was drama, not history. As such, it at-tained a high degree of dramatic truth. Beneath its absorbing docu-mentation of persons and situa-tions that had crowded the front pages in recent years was a strongly constructed drama of a group of men's struggle to attain and preserve power.

A tougher gang of power-mad rascals never has been pictured on American television.
